

2019-2020 One Act Festival
23rd One Act Festival – Ten Below

Last Words

by Philip J. Kaplan (Brooklyn, NY)

At their father's funeral, a brother and sister's dueling eulogies give the mourners a picture of sibling rivalry at its best ... or worst ...

Trapped

by Barry Wood (Lincolnshire, UK)

Claire has made a shocking discovery that she needs to share with her friend Faye. But is it all in Claire's mind, or even in someone else's mind?

Miss Winnie

by Marla Porter (Austin, TX)

Meet Miss Winnie Stifflemire, who has a very special job in the great beyond.

Riding Lessons

by Brett Hursey (Farmville, VA)

What happens when your invisible friend is not so invisible anymore?

Jane Finds a Friend

by Emily Scafidi (Eastlake, OH)

Parents hire a babysitter for their daughter ... with an ulterior motive in mind.

Coming to Town

by Keith Whalen (Peekskill, NY)

When do you tell your children about Santa? A dilemma for all parents, especially the over-protective ones.

Great Escapes

by David Susman (Kennebunk, ME)

Mom busts out of the assisted living. On her walker. With an escape plan. Shows up on her son's doorstep. For help.

The Sitting

by Pamela Kingsley (Spokane WA)

A widow's husband left her a very special gift.

Why God Made Beggars

by Steve Koppman (Oakland, CA)

John sleeps outside the coffeehouse where his old friend and rival works, the latter struggling with what being a 'real human' demands of him.

Bits and Pieces

by Lacey Alayna Alexander (Morris, AL)

Being invisible in a group of friends who love me. Except the part of me that makes me different.

Nano Romance

by George J. Bryjak (Bloomingdale, NY)

Boy and girl meet, fall madly in love, and plan to marry. Boy and girl discuss their future, fall out of love, and go their separate ways. All in five minutes.