

SPOTLIGHT STORY

ELIZABETH EVERETT

"I am grateful for the time that I had with FAA long ago in providing me at such an early age so many excellent opportunities of creative expression that in the long run, cultivated such strong foundational support in being able to achieve further success in my career going forward."

Elizabeth Everett was an actress at FAA many years ago when she was growing up. She enjoyed both acting and singing beginning at a young age.

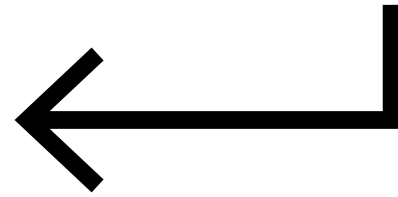

Elizabeth has worked as a professional singer touring and working with the likes of The Cure, Peter Gabriel, and Paul Oakenfold. She also would lend her vocals to hundreds of vocal sessions, ads, and soundtracks.

Today, Elizabeth is a professional hypnotherapist, award winning dating coach, herbalist, and radio host in Austin, Texas!

Elizabeth says "I am grateful for the time that I had with FAA long ago in providing me at such an early age so many excellent opportunities of creative expression that in the long run, cultivated such strong foundational support in being able to achieve further success in my career going forward."

She believes the arts are important because... "Giving people an outlet with their creativity is one of the most vital things someone can do in maintaining a healthy lifestyle and outlook on life especially with children as they are crafting their own unique personalities."

Elizabeth playing the role "Annie" at FAA

Elizabeth as "Annie" again years later in a television production of Annie

Elizabeth performing in her young adult years

