Creative Arts Therapies Scholarship
Application Guidelines

Thanks to many generous individuals, organizations, foundations and fundraising events, The Fine Arts Association (FAA) offers Financial Need scholarships to clients seeking services in the Creative Arts Therapies Department. FAA adheres to the guidelines and procedures outlined below. Applications are available on FAA’s website or at the Customer Service Center. Questions should be directed to Ann Marie Raddell, MT-BC, NICU MT, Director of Creative Arts Therapies at (440) 951-7500 ext. 124 or araddell@fineartsassociation.org.

Eligibility: Financial Need Scholarship

To be eligible for a Creative Arts Therapies scholarship, applicants must be able to answer YES to BOTH questions below.

☐ Yes, I am a registered FAA student or will register immediately if awarded a scholarship.
☐ Yes, my or my total family income is at or below the 200% Federal Poverty Income Level (Click to see chart) or extenuating circumstances apply (e.g., out of pocket expenses, disability, unemployment, homelessness, bankruptcy, etc. – see page 2) and I am willing to provide proof that these extenuating circumstances exist.

Creative Arts Therapies Scholarship Guidelines

1. While applications will be accepted at any time, a fully COMPLETE and signed application and all requested documents must be returned to Ann Marie Raddell, Coordinator of Creative Arts Therapies. Incomplete applications will be NOT be reviewed.
2. An individual application must be completed and submitted for each student.
3. The amount of available scholarship funds varies by session and year; and time of application submission may effect allocation amount. Priority will be given to those who do not have other financial resources such as ACE or other third-party funding.
4. Proof of identification, a current IRS 1040 Form and for those with extenuating circumstances, a description of your current situation are required.
5. Recipients of Creative Arts Therapies scholarships are encouraged to volunteer. This may include assisting at FAA or performing/speaking for a funding organization event.
6. Recipients are asked to write a thank you letter to the funding agency. Letters should be submitted to Ann Marie Raddell, Coordinator of Creative Arts Therapies.
7. Tuition balance must be paid before the first class. There are payment plans available for balances over $200.
8. In general, Creative Arts Therapies scholarships will be limited to one class/series of private lessons per person per session.
9. Scholarships are not transferable. Unused funds are NOT carried forward to subsequent sessions or classes and cannot be shared with family members.
10. Habitual and excessive absenteeism (exceptions made) will be taken under consideration during the selection process.
11. If a student withdraws, scholarship monies are not refunded.
12. All applications are reviewed by FAA’s CEO, director of education, director of development, and Director of Creative Arts Therapies using specific review criteria.
13. All decisions are final. Anyone disputing a decision should complete an Appeal Form that can be found on FAA’s website or at the Customer Service Center.
Extenuating Circumstance Situations (check all that apply):

- Actively using social services (provide receipts of services used)
- Currently experiencing homelessness (provide proof of residency at shelter)
- Recurring out of pocket expenses for medical care and/or additional therapies
- Adapted equipment needs (provide receipts)
- Currently evicted or facing eviction or foreclosure (provide receipts of notification)
- Currently in an active shut-off notification process from a utility company (provide receipts of notification)
- Recently experienced the death of an immediate family member in their household (provide obituary and proof of residency)
- Recently experienced a fire, flood, or other natural or human-caused disaster that caused substantial damage to their property (provide receipt of insurance claim)
- Recently filed for bankruptcy (provide receipt of bankruptcy notice)
- Recently had medical expenses that resulted in substantial debt (provide proof of medical expense)
- Recently had unexpected increases in necessary expenses due to caring for an ill, disabled, or aging family member (provide proof of medical expenses)
- One of the major providers in the home has recently become unemployed (provide proof of unemployment)
- Other ________________________________________________________________